Enemies on every side

Are you there, Lord?

See me hiding in the night,

Can you save me?

When I've almost given up

And my heart is overwhelmed by sorrow,

In the darkness of my doubt, I find hope.

I trust you God,

Where else can I go?

I trust you God,

Let you love enfold.

Struggling the endless fight,

O how long, Lord?

Hear me crying out for light,

Can you free me?

When I've almost given up,

And my heart is overwhelmed by sorrow,

In the darkness of my doubt,

I find hope.

I trust you God,
Where else can I go?
I trust you God,
Let you love enfold.

Whatever may come,
Whatever may come,
I will follow.

Whatever may come,
Whatever may come,
I surrender.

Whatever may come,
Whatever may come,
I will follow.

Whatever may come,
Whatever may come,
I surrender.

I trust you God,
Where else can I go?
I trust you God,
Let your love enfold.

I trust you God,
Where else can I go?
I trust you God,
Let your love enfold.
